

MORNING APPEAL.

Tuesday, January 18, 1887.

THE DOOM OF POLYGAMY.

The passage of the Anti-Mormon bill by an almost unanimous vote in Congress, will break up the foulest nest of harpies that was ever suffered to exist in the Republic of the United States. It was a blot on the page of National History that such a bill was not passed years ago. A new light broke over Utah when this bill was passed, and the source of it should never be extinguished. The so-called Mormon Church is composed of vampires, who, for low cunning, diabolism, lust and fraud, were never equalled on earth. The old buccaneers who scoured the Spanish main and ravaged the coasts of South America years ago, were decent men compared to the crowd which for more than a quarter of a century have engineered the modern ecclesiastical scheme known as the Mormon Church. The Salt Lake Tribune, edited by Charlie Goodwin, has been the head and front of this long and gallant fight against Mormonism, and this man deserves the thanks of the Nation for his brave and honest labor in behalf of good government and household decency.

THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR'S BILL.

The bill appropriating a certain sum of money for the reimbursing of ex-Lieutenant Governor Laughton for that portion of his salary withheld him by the State is a measure which ought to pass. Every one is familiar with the war waged on Laughton by a Democratic Governor and it partook very much of the nature of spite and was fought purely on technical grounds. No one denies that Mr. Laughton performed his duties so long as he was allowed to do so. He was deposed from his position as ex-officio Librarian because of neglect to renew his bond. It is a matter of record that ex Governor Adams during the first four years of his holding the office of Lieutenant Governor filed no bond, at least there is no record of such a bond—and no one questioned his official act. A Republican Legislature ought to do justice to a man who was subjected to Democratic persecution for purely partisan motives.

NEVADA CONGRATULATED.

We congratulate Nevada on the election of Wm. M. Stewart, United States Senator. He is a most able, clear-headed, influential man, his energy is tireless, his ability of the highest order. He will take a commanding place in the Senate from the moment the oath is administered to him, for the Senate Chamber is his old stamping-ground and he will know exactly what to do and how to do it. He will work in perfect harmony with Senator Jones, though no two men could be more opposite in their methods. Together, they are a strong team, and Nevada men can rest sure that no State is more ably represented than their own.—Salt Lake Tribune.

One of Three.

From the well-known advertising house of George P. Rowell & Co., proprietors of the newspaper advertising bureau at 10 Spruce street, New York City, has been issued a small volume containing much and very important information for advertisers. The list of newspapers given contains only such periodicals as are on a sound footing, and have circulations running up in the thousands. The principal papers of the South, North, East and West, are represented and classified in a convenient way. It has been the aim of the publishers to sift the wheat from the chaff, and the book directs the attention of an advertiser towards papers which he should and ought to use, and tends to intercept a portion of that patronage which goes to publications which cost greatly in excess of any power to benefit which they possess. It takes the general ground that the best is the cheapest. Prominent among the first journals mentioned is the MORNING APPEAL, as one of the three best advertising mediums in Nevada. Only three papers are mentioned in the Nevada list; the Enterprise, Reno Gazette and APPEAL.

The Tucker Bill.

On Wednesday, the 12th instant, at 5:30 o'clock P. M., the Tucker Anti-Polygamy Bill passed the House by an almost unanimous vote. The Salt Lake Democrat heralds the news in flaming poetical head lines as follows: "Sound the Loud Timbrel o'er Utah's Dark Sea, The Gentiles Have Triumphed and Utah Feels Free. Mark January 12th in Bold Letters of Red, For Utah Has Risen as Christ From the Dead."

The passage of this measure is another blow at the "twin relic," and it is only a question of time when this foul blot will be wiped from the face of the earth, and Utah will take her place among the sisterhood of States cleansed and purified from the debasing influences of the most degrading abomination that was ever permitted to flourish among a free and enlightened people.
